Seniors please go to the school website and the Scholarship bulletin board in the Guidance Hallway (across from the Library) to stay up to date on the current scholarships available.

You can stay up to date with announcements and important information at: www.weiserschools.org the District Facebook page is also located there. The website is new and updated. Please take time to visit and see what is new. We have been getting reports that the website/announcements is not updating daily on some computers. If pushing F5 several times does not clear your cache and show you updates, find out what your internet browser is and search on how to clean up temporary internet files and to clear the internet search "every time" the page is loaded.

The Daily Announcements are always posted in the Office window!
